Saturday, November 2nd, 2019 - Titan Student Union, Pavilions A & B

All Points of the Compass

Program

Register to attend at http://tinyurl.com/CSUFGeography

Welcome and Introduction (10:00-10:10)

Paper Session I (10:10-10:50)

10:10-10:30 Examining the Climate Response of Common Pines in Yosemite and Sequoia National Parks
Ray Villalba - Graduate Student

10:30-10:50 Wildfire Detection and Assessment with Satellite Remote Sensing
Jindong Wu - CSUF Geography Faculty

Poster Session / Map Competition (10:50-11:25)

Paper Session II (11:25-11:45)

11:25-11:45 An American Geographer's Adventures in Cuba
Jodi Titus - CSUF Alumna, CSUF Geography Faculty, Irvine Valley College Geography Faculty

Keynote Presentation (11:45-12:30)
Traveling Our Magnificent World: A Geographer's Perspective
Matt Ebiner, El Camino College

Special Presentation and Short Break (12:30-12:40)

Paper Session III (12:40-1:20)

12:40-1:00 Rhino Conservation: Perspectives from the Field
Lilia Illes - CSUF Geography Faculty

1:00-1:20 Gentrification, Gentrifiers and the Genitocracy: Changes in Place Ownership in Santa Ana
Ryan Koyanagi - Graduate Student

Panel Session (1:20-1:50)
Geography Students in the Field
Topanga Betke - Undergraduate Student
Gemayel Goxcon - Graduate Student
Guadalupe Maldonado - Graduate Student
Elois Joseph - Graduate Student

Reception and Department Tour follow in H-422F.

Register to attend at the All Points website: http://tinyurl.com/CSUFGeography.

Learn about the map competition, poster session, & directions and parking at the All Points website.

Questions? Please email the CSUF Geography Club at csufgeography@gmail.com