All Points of the Compass

Preliminary Program

Final program to be released soon - Attendees: Please register online at tinyurl.com/CSUFGeography

Paper Session I (10:00-11:00)

10:00-10:20 The Spice of Life: Changing Foodways in Southern California’s Indian Immigrant Community
   Elois Joseph, Graduate Student

10:20-10:40 Weed Oasis: How the City of Desert Hot Springs Embraced the Legalization of Recreational Marijuana
   Brian McCabe, CSUF Geography Faculty
   Students in the Fall 2018 Cities and Nature course

Poster Session (10:40-11:10)

Paper Session II (11:10-11:50)

11:10-11:30 Murals, Memorials, and Memory: Commemorating Events in the Landscape.
   Irene Naesse, Orange Coast College Geography Faculty

11:30-11:50 (New) Craters on the Moon: A Geographic Contribution
   Dydia DeLyser, CSUF Geography Faculty

Panel Session (11:50-12:10)

Tree-Ring Research: Geography’s Cal-Dendro Lab
   Olivia Hinton, Graduate Student
   Trevis Matheus, CSUF Geography Faculty
   Raymond Villalba, Graduate Student
   Students in the Summer 2018 Mountain Field Geography course

Paper Session III (12:10-1:10)

12:10-12:30 The Green Experiment: Planting the Seed of Sustainability through Cultural Change
   Aline Gregorio, Fullerton College Geography Faculty

Short Break (12:30-12:40)

Keynote Presentation (1:15-2:00)

Geography Weaves Many Landscapes Together: A Case Study of the Puente-Chino Hills Wildlife Corridor.
   Melanie Schlotterbeck, Hills for Everyone

Reception and Department Tour follow on the fourth floor of the Humanities building.