

All Points of the Compass Program

Register to attend at <http://tinyurl.com/CSUFGeography>

Welcome and Introduction (10:00-10:10)

Paper Session I (10:10-10:50)

- 10:10-10:30 Assessing Organizational Challenges within Municipal GIS Implementations: A Case Study of Urban Drainage System Asset Management in Orange County, California
Andrew Wallace - Graduate Student
- 10:30-10:50 Contrasting Representations of Place: A Case Study of Haleakala National Park, Hawaii
Kaitlyn Matyuch - Graduate Student

Poster Session / Map Competition (10:50-11:25)

Paper Session II (11:25-11:45)

- 11:25-11:45 Power and Place: The Uneven Development of Wind Power in New York's North Country
Mark Drayse - Faculty

Keynote Presentation (11:45-12:30)

Public Education's Role in Today's Climate Crisis: California State University's Climate Action and Resilience
Tamara Wallace, California State University

Special Presentation and Short Break (12:30-12:40)

Paper Session III (12:40-1:20)

- 12:40-1:00 A Dendroarchaeological Evaluation of a Log Cabin in Mariposa, California
Jamie StClair - Graduate Student
- 1:00-1:20 x: Perspectives from the Field
Topanga Betke - Alumna

Panel Session (1:20-1:50)

Career Panel: Where Can Geography Take You?

Reception and Department Tour follow in H-422F.

Register to attend at the All Points website: <http://tinyurl.com/CSUFGeography>.

Learn about the map competition, poster session, & directions and parking at the All Points website.

Questions? Please email the CSUF Geography Club at csufgeography@gmail.com