- If you are planning on attending the symposium and the reception: Parking Lot F is the closest parking lot to the Humanities Building (orange on the upper map), where the reception will be held. Parking Lot F is marked with a yellow star on the upper map. Enter the campus at Entrance #1 on Nutwood Ave. and Folino Dr. and then turn left into the first entrance.
- If you are planning on attending the symposium only: The State College parking structure (yellow triangle on the upper map, enter at Entrance #6) on Gymnasium Drive is the closest parking structure to the Titan Student Union (red on the upper map), where the symposium will be held.

Parking:

Because All Points is being held on a weekend, parking is free in all parking lots (faculty and students) and parking structures.

All Points of the Compass will be held in the CSUF Titan Student Union, in Pavilions A & B (On the main level - marked in red on the lower map)
